Artist's Statement:

“My work is a mixture of the real and the imagined, focusing on the effects of the light in the heat of the day, the morning stillness or late afternoon as it fades away. The landscape, valleys, creeks, hills and the bush that were once painstakingly cleared are now locked in a struggle between native and invasive plants competing for space, the wild and the cultivated together in a bounty of scenery that evokes curiosity and endless possibilities for the observer.”
