Artist's Statement:

'IN LIMBO'

I put this body of work together in 2020.

The work reflects how my son, Willow, and I were living our lives during this time. We both had plans which involved going places. Obviously, that was impossible and we, like the rest of the world, were left in limbo. As I continued to work, my friends started bringing around their cherished things for me to paint; which was a beautiful way for me to feel connected during isolation.
