Artist's Statement

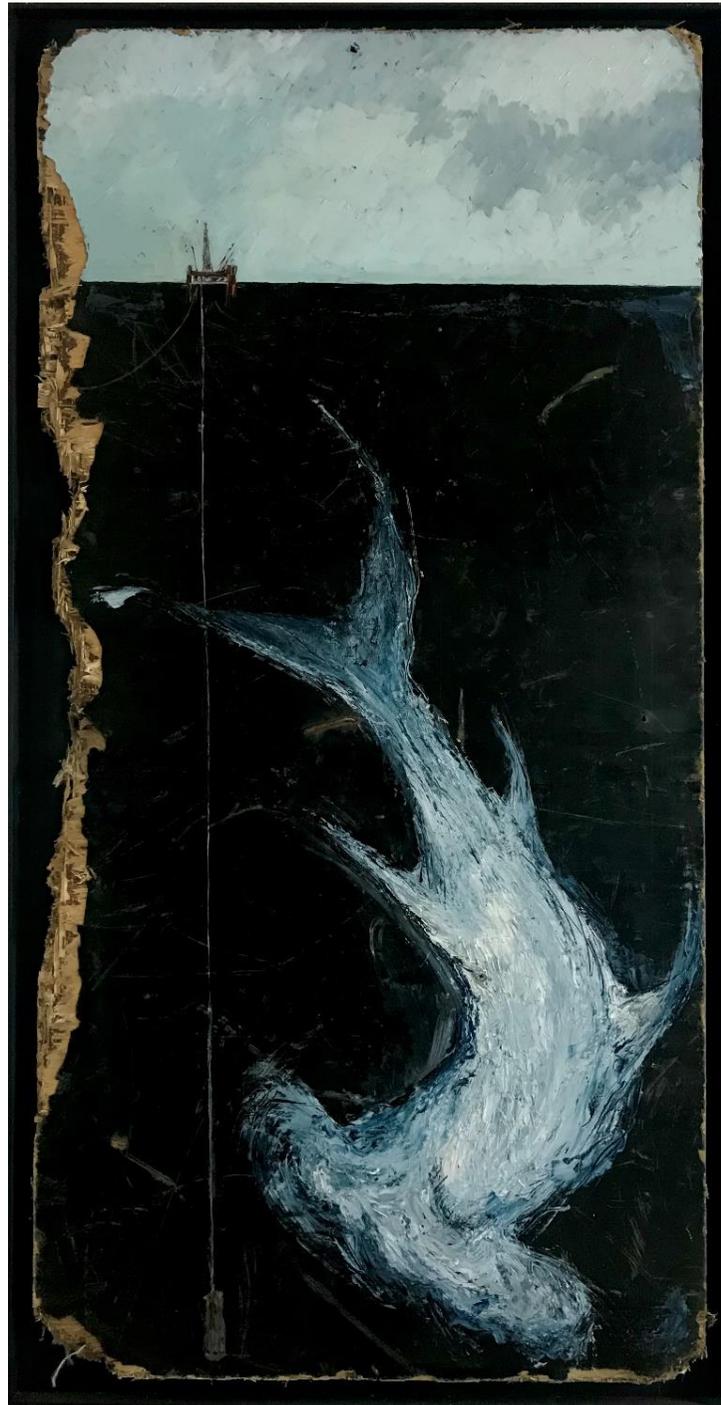

"I'm constantly glimpsing, and chasing, vignettes of the elusive and mystical allure of the coast.

I'm intrigued by the melting of sea and horizon, the form of a wave, the way the wave laps the shore, the transition from ocean to land, the bush that clings to the rocks and sand, and the communities that grow around the harsh and beautiful environment.

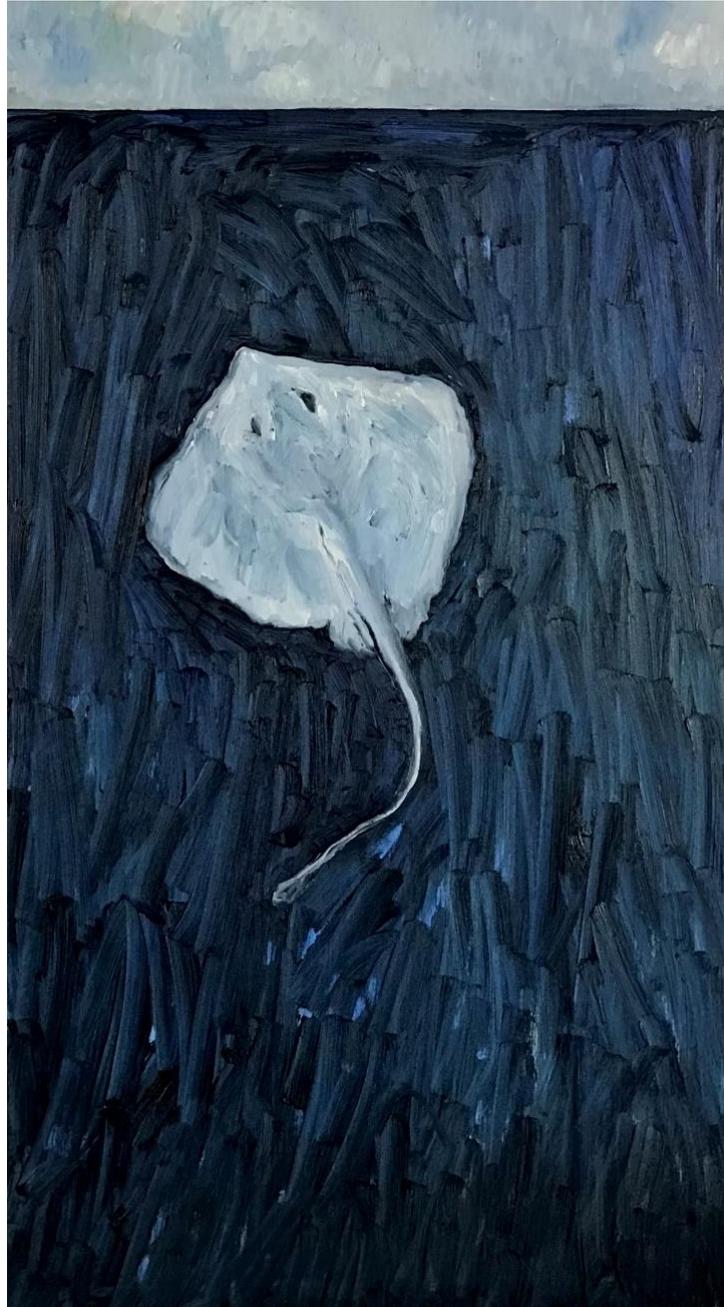

Then there's my fascination and curiosity with the world beneath the surface, the undercurrent.

My mind, and my paintbrush, are for ever curious about every moment, and for this exhibition I've tried to capture a glimpse of those moments."
