Artist Profile

Jennifer Summers

Born in Kyogle, New South Wales. My art practice is primarily focused on the hills and valleys where I lived as a child, growing up in the MacPherson Ranges. These are the foothills of the Great Dividing Range where forest gives way to farmland. Whether this place is in a cycle of floods and lush seasons or long years of drought and the inevitable fires, I continue to find inspiration in the narrow valleys, shallow creeks, grassy flats and tree lined ridges.

Both chaos and joy are reflected in a diverse body of work both drawn and painted en plein air and in the studio, currently at One+2 Artist Studios, Balmain.

Studies commenced in 1970 with a Diploma of Teaching, Social Sciences where an interest in the physical world grew. Followed by a Diploma of Art Education at the City Art Institute and then working for the Department of Education from 1974 to 1994 as an Art Teacher, Illustrator and Audio & Video Producer. Over the years I have completed short courses at the National Art School, COFA, Waverley Woollahra Art School, Tom Bass Sculpture Studios, and the Slade School in London, encompassing Photography, Printmaking, Drawing and Painting.

My work has been selected and exhibited for the Paddington Art Prize, Mosman Art Prize, North Sydney Art Prize, a solo exhibition at the Comber Street Gallery Paddington, a group exhibition at the Ivan Dougherty Gallery Paddington and now a solo show with Project Gallery 90.
